Ravalli County Commissioners

Dear County Commissioners,

As part of the National Day of Prayer Task Force, we feel privileged to invite you to attend the prayer observance in our community on Thursday, May 3. Our observance will be held in Legion Park, in Hamilton from noon to 1:00 PM. The event will be filled with prayer for our nation, its governmental leaders, churches and families. The Reverend Alvin House will deliver a special message on prayer and its importance to our nation's present and future.

As you may know, the annual National Day of Prayer was established by federal law in 1952 when the United States Congress passed a joint resolution, which was signed by President Harry Truman. The law was amended in 1988 and signed by President Ronald Reagan, specifically designating the first Thursday in May as the official National Day of Prayer.

You may also have heard about the success of last year's observances. It's so exciting to see the incredible work God is doing in the hearts and lives of people as a result of people coming together in prayer. If God did all this in one day, just imagine what He will do if we would commit ourselves to pray regularly on behalf of our communities and nation.

President George Bush echoed this theme in his 2002 National Day of Prayer address. He stated, "America is a country of faith. And throughout our history, in times of crisis and in times of calm, Americans have always turned to prayer. And this year's event has special meaning. Since the attacks of September the 11th, millions -- millions -- of Americans of every religious faith have been led to prayer. They have prayed for comfort in a time of sorrow, for courage in a time of fear and for understanding in a time of anger."

For the sake of Ravalli County, please join us for prayer on Thursday, May 3. We look forward to seeing you there! May God bless you and the ones you love.

Sincerely,

Steve Trimble

Dear County Commissioner:

As part of the National Day of Prayer, we feel privileged to invite you to attend the prayer observance in our community on Thursday, May 7. Our observance will be held in Lagoon Park, in Hamilton from noon to 1:00 PM. The event will be held with prayer for our nation, its governmental leaders, churches and families. The Reverend Ailin Houe will deliver a special message on prayer and its importance to our nation's persons and future.

As you may know, the National Day of Prayer was established by federal law in 1954 when the United States Congress passed a joint resolution, which was signed by President Dwight D. Eisenhower. This law was renewed in 1988 and signed by President Ronald Reagan, reaffirming the day. Thursday in May is the official National Day of Prayer.

Our day also has a rich history. It is so exciting to see the incredible work that is being done in the home and lives of people coming together in prayer. It is not just a day, just imagine what it will do if we would commit ourselves to pray regularly on behalf of our communities and nation.

President George Bush called this theme in his 1992 National Day of Prayer address. He stated, "America is a country of faith. And throughout our history, in times of crisis and in times of calm, Americans have always turned to prayer. And this year's observance is a special message from the people of America. The 144 million -- millions -- of Americans of every religion, this year have led to prayer. They have prayed for comfort in a time of sorrow, for courage in a time of fear and for understanding in a time of change."

For the sake of this all County, please join us for prayer on Thursday, May 7. We look forward to seeing you there. May God bless you and the ones you love.

Sincerely,
